

International Organization for Migration (IOM)
The UN Migration Agency

Gender, protection, dialogue, and capacity enhancement are mainstreamed within IOM programming

LAYER 1 – DONORS

-  European Union
-  Government of Germany
-  Italian Agency for Development and Cooperation (IADC)
-  IOM Development Fund
-  Government of Denmark
-  Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands
-  US Department of State
-  US Agency for International Development (USAID)
-  Government of the United Kingdom
-  Government of Norway
-  Government of Japan

LAYER 2 – SECTORS OF ACTIVITY *

-  Assisted Voluntary Return (and Reintegration)
-  Capacity Building
-  Community Cohesion & Development
-  Expatriate Engagement
-  Knowledge Production (including data and research)
-  Infrastructure Improvement
-  Livelihood Opportunities
-  Localized Assistance
-  Protection

* IOM Egypt's activities include an awareness raising component on the dangers of irregular migration and the risks of trafficking. They also address general discourse on migration.

LAYER 3 – BENEFICIARIES **

-  Children (including Unaccompanied Minors)
-  Civil Society
-  Communities at Risk
-  Government of Egypt
-  Host Communities
-  Survivors of SGBV
-  Victims of Trafficking
-  Vulnerable Migrants
-  Women
-  Youth

** IOM Egypt's activities benefit and contribute to the protection of migrant and Egyptian populations, both directly and/or indirectly.