CONTEXT

On 15 April 2023, armed clashes erupted between the Sudanese Armed Forces (SAF) and the Rapid Support Forces (RSF) in multiple cities across Sudan. The conflict in Sudan has caused the Mixed Cross-Border movements of 926,841 individuals into neighboring countries of which more than 283,500 of them have fled to Egypt to seek protection according to the Egyptian Ministry of Foreign Affairs on 1 August 2023. In addition, more than 3.4 million people are currently internally displaced within Sudan according to IOM's DTM report from 1 August 2023. IOM, along with other UN agencies and partners in the region, has adopted a Regional Refugee Response Plan. Under this plan, IOM Egypt is working to meet the urgent needs Sudanese nationals and Third Country Nationals (TCNs) in close coordination with the Government of Egypt, UN agencies, the Egyptian Red Crescent (ERC), civil society, private sector and others. As the severe humanitarian crisis keeps unfolding in Sudan, IOM continues to respond to the mid- and long-term needs of the people fleeing Sudan in search of safety as well as host communities in Egypt. IOM Egypt's Response Overview contributes to addressing the humanitarian needs and the complexities of a mixed cross-border movement.
